The Cannon County Election Commission met on July 14, 2014 in the grand jury room because the courtroom was being used. All members except Studd were present. AOE Mankin was present.

1. The meeting was called to order by Chm Davenport.
2. Prayer was led by Mike Grosch.
3. All recited the pledge.
4. The June minutes were approved after Gannon made the motion and Patrick Seconded. All in favor.
5. Voter registrations were reviewed by Grosch and Gannon. It was another month Of high registration with over 130 in registrations.
6. Voting hours for election day from 7:00 am until 7:00 pm were approved after Patrick made the motion and Gannon seconded. All in favor.

It was approved that the absentee counting board would meet at the election office from 4:00 pm until 7:00 pm on election day. Gannon made the motion with Grosch seconding. All in favor.

The spelling of Frank Walkup and Delinda Parton's names was discussed and an acceptable write in list was given to Mankin.

Mankin had prepared a check list for the commissioners to check when they go to a polling place on election day. Different colored pens will be used to make it easier. Green for the workers and blue for the voters. Each polling place was assigned to the individual commissioners to check the 100 ft boundaries.

Mankin gave each commissioner a tote of supplies to use on election day.

The website was discussed and that early voting and absentee total per day would be on the site.

7. Gannon made a motion to move the election commission meeting back to the Election office stating that it had been originally moved because of the large crowds and this was no longer an issue. Gannon also stated Mankin at the previous meeting had to transport a lot of bags, boxes, locks, etc.. Patrick seconded the motion. Grosch voted naye with Patrick and Gannon voting yes. Motion ~~passed~~ failed
8. The ad in the courier being incorrect was discussed and Mankin is to run one More time the ballot. Election night with returns being broadcast from the courthouse was discussed. WBRV's Keith Ready will broadcast from the courthouse and this should alleviate the crowding at the election office. Dorinda Stated all is ready.
9. Gannon made a motion to adjourn with Grosch seconding. Meeting adjourned.
