The Cannon County Election Commission met on November 18, 2013 for their monthly meeting. All members were present except for Studd. AOE Mankin was present along with one visitor.

5. 35 new voter registrations were reviewed by both Gannon and Grosch.
6. AOE Mankin reported the voter ID law had been upheld by the TN Supreme Court. Mankin discussed the FACEO winter Seminar to be held in Franklin on December 5, 2013. No one present wished to attend other than Mankin. Patrick asked Mankin if we were any closer to getting to make the voter identification cards in the county. Mankin stated the sheriff had a machine that we could use and the election office would only have to pay for supplies if this were to get approved.
Someone had marked he was a felon on his voter registration form and had not gotten their rights restored. Mankin was asked to send a letter informing him of the process for getting his voter rights restored.
7. The picture was tabled because Studd was not present.
8. There were no other matters to come before the commission.
9. Gannon made a motion to adjourn with Grosch seconding. Meeting adjourned.
